Taps Sound for Vet Who Fought With Sherman

Michael Click, 92, Dies at Home at 253 South Vine Street

Marion's fading line of blue lost another member yesterday with the sounding of taps for Michael Click 92 at his home at 253 South Vine street Mr Click until a year ago one of the most active of Marion's Civil war veterans died at 1 15 p m of infirmities of age

A walk through the uptown district was a daily constitutional for Mr Click until his health began to fail and his short black clothed figure and snowy white goatee marked him as he went about the city with a small market basket doing his daily bit of shopping

Mr Click was one of Marion's veterans who could boast of having marched with Sherman through Georgia on his history making march to the sea It was in Atlanta that he cast his first vote a ballot for President Lincoln whom Mr Click a deeply religious man was wont to compare to the Christ as a man persecuted misunderstood and resented by many

Mr Click joined Sherman's army when he was 21 and was in the march all the way to Savannah He kept a diary of his war service in which were recorded faithfully the maneuvers of the great Union general and his men The diary was sent to his mother but was lost or destroyed in a transfer of property

Mr Click was in the 66th Ohio Volunteer Infantry on his March to the sea and was in the 82nd Ohio

Fascists Rally In Paris As Mobs Riot In London

French Rightists Plan New Raids After Clash With Reds, Jews Attacked in England.

By The Associated Press

LONDON Oct 5—Fifty marauders invaded the Jewish colony in London's east end today to raid shops after police had quieted an earlier anti Fascist demonstration

With bricks and stones the roaming band smashed windows and plate glass fronts in a renewal of street rioting which forced cancellation of a parade planned by Sir Oswald Mosley British Fascist leader

Disturbances developed yesterday as Mosley's followers congregated near the town of London and anti Fascist demonstrators in the east end threatened to charge the procession Police persuaded Sir Oswald to call off the parade although scattered skirmishes broke out at a number of point.

Police pulled down barricades erected by Communist demonstrators along the projected line of march Approximately 100 persons were arrested and between 200 and 300 treated for minor injuries before order was restored in the district

Officials estimated a crowd of 30 000 lay in wait for the 6 000 blackshirted Fascists The majority of the demonstrators they declared were Jewish residents of the east end who had clashed previously with Mosley's supporters

PARIS Oct 5 — The Nationalist cohorts of Col Francois De La Rocque ignoring threats of suppression for their Sabbath battle with Paris Communists proclaimed today they would carry on"

While leftists demanded the government put a halt to the campaign of the Nationalist French Social party the rightist leaders declared they would marshal their followers for counter demonstrations against all major meetings of the popular front

Strong forces of guardsmen and police which restored peace to Paris streets after Sunday's trouble withdrew to barracks but remained alert against the possibility of further outbreaks

Organized combat by Fascists attempting to break up a Communist meeting Informed sources declared had shown the new social party to be a military league rather than a political organization

Street rioting—characterized as the worst in many years — transformed the area near the Parc Des Princes into a shambles yesterday and brought 12 000 policemen and mobile guards into action

Fifteen hundred persons were jailed temporarily although all but a few were released later after the fighting had been halted

The series of running fights—in which heads were cracked property damaged and Sunday peace shattered completely—started when Communists took over the park for a rally

Fascists previously had declared they would hold a session in the same location but the Communists got up early and got there first.

Helmeted policemen guarded the 100 000 leftist supporters as rightists allied with Col Francois De La Rocque's party began rallies against small groups

MAYOR, MISSOURIAN TALK

Former Congressman Sees Rapid Swing in Sentiment to Kansas Governor

A crowd estimated at 2 000 persons heard a program of talks given Saturday night on the south steps of the courthouse in the opening of the Landon Knox club campaign in Marion county under direction of Mayor Frederick C Smith county chairman

The principal speaker was Joe J Manlove of Joplin Mo former congressman Mayor Smith also spoke and John Clark gave a brief talk in introducing the two other speakers The Harding High school band took part in the program

The crowd spread over the esplanade and extended on the sidewalks of Center street west of Main street The talks were given over a public address system

Mr Manlove praised the record of Grant E Mouser Jr former congressman from the Eighth district and now the Republican nominee for that office and predicted that Ohio will cast an overwhelming vote for Governor Landon and Colonel Knox

He said he based his prediction on the number of old line Democrats who had come to him following political meetings in the state and told him they intended to vote for the Republican presidential and vice presidential nominees

Ohio voters he said appear to have two outstanding objections to the new deal One of them is the regimentation of human life the hazard to our constitutional guarantees The other is the squandering of public funds and consequent mortgaging of the future of their children

He declared 15 billions of the

GYPSY BABY DIES AT HOSPITAL; PARENTS GONE

Man and Woman Bring Child Here, Then Leave, Camp at Waldo Disappears Without Trace.

A prematurely born gypsy baby died Saturday night at 6 30 in the City hospital a few hours after it was brought there by parents who have not been heard from since

The baby is entered on hospital records as Frank Steve son of Joe and Rosa Marie Steve no address

Dressed in colorful gypsy garb and riding in a new car the man and woman went to the hospital about 4 p m Saturday with the baby which they said was theirs They told hospital employes that the baby had been born 10 days before in Toledo City hospital. Examination showed that the infant was not more than three or four days old, employes said today It weighed three and one-quarter pounds

A few minutes after arriving at the hospital the man and woman left, saying they were going to join fellow gypsies in pitching tents south of Waldo, and since then nothing has been heard from them or from anyone else regarding funeral services and burial for the baby

Two telephone calls were made to the hospital Saturday night one about 8 and one about midnight the latter from someone purporting to be calling from Toledo but believed by authorities to have been made from a Marion telephone. Both times the inquirers were told that the baby was dead

The body was taken to the M H Gunder & Son funeral home on West Center street

The strong love of gypsies for their children may bring the man and woman back to Marion authorities said, and in the meantime a search for the gypsy band is being considered. The camp was located south of Waldo late Saturday afternoon, officials from the sheriff's office said, but no trace of the camp could be found yesterday.

Marion Joins in Campaign To Prevent Fires

City Firemen Inspect Buildings as Part of Nationwide Observance

Marion's observance of fire prevention week began today when 14 city firemen were detailed by Fire Chief T J McFarland to begin an extensive inspection tour of the business district Fire prevention week Oct 4 to 9 has been set aside by proclamation of President Roosevelt and the inspection of buildings factories and schools will comprise a large share of the city's activity to bring the program before the public

The firemen who are off duty will conduct the inspections and it is expected that the uptown district will be covered within two or three days Chief McFarland said Storing ashes in inflammable containers allowing rubbish to accumulate in and around buildings and failure to check heating equipment after it has been in disuse during the summer are among the obvious fire hazards which are often overlooked Chief McFarland pointed out.

With the days becoming shorter light lines will be carrying heavier electric loads and they should be inspected for any defects the chief suggested Chimneys heating pipes and heating units should be thoroughly gone over before being put into use for the first time each fall Defects may appear during the summer and only a thorough inspection will discover them before the plant is put into use

STOCKS ABSORB PROFIT TAKING

Start Out at Brisk Buying Pace, Then Ease Some Under Realizing.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 5—While encountering plenty of profit taking in the wake of last week's sharp advance the stock market today digested selling quite easily.

With Italy joining other countries in lowering currency values banking quarters took a long range optimistic view of international trade. Domestic fundamentals were also to the liking of the analysts.

The market got off to a fast start. Large blocks of shares changed hands in early dealings at gains of fractions to a point or so a number reaching new six year tops. For a while the ticker tape fell behind floor transactions.

The pace slowed to a jog later and near the fourth hour price trends were somewhat indefinite.

Both Allied Chemical and Westinghouse Electric got up some 4 points at their best but yielded part of this.

Holding improvement of fractions to a point or more were Anaconda, Kennecott, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Hiram Walker, Phelps Dodge, American Smelting, General Electric, du Pont, Goodyear, Burroughs Adding, National Cash Register, Industrial Rayon, Allis Chalmers and American Locomotive.

In a restricted range were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Chrysler, American Telephone, Western Union, Consolidated Edison, North American, American Can, Santa Fe, New York Central, Pennsylvania, Southern Pacific, Great Northern, Illinois Central, Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, Douglas Aircraft, United Aircraft and National Distillers.

Bonds were a shade better but commodities were mixed. In the foreign exchange sector sterling was down. Most of the gold currencies were fairly even. The lira dropped to its newly revalued level around 5.26 cents.

Helpful to boardroom sentiment generally was the weekly review of the magazine Steel which predicted output would maintain its advancing trend over the remainder of the year unless unforeseen difficulties arise.

In line with the revaluation of the lira this currency was nominally quoted at 5.25 cents at the beginning of foreign exchange transactions compared with a rate of 7.60 cents Saturday. Sterling was off 5-16 of a cent at $4.92 and the French franc was up 003/16 of a cent at 6.57¾ cents.

PATROLMEN MAKE CHECK ON TRAFFIC

Patrolmen Jack Kratzer and Bob Curtis of the Marion sub-station of the state highway patrol conducted a traffic check of approximately 350 motorists last night at Routes 4 and 31 near Marysville and discovered only six of the 350 without their new driver's licenses.

One arrest was made, that of Thomas N. Bacom of Lima who was charged with driving with license plates originally issued to another motor vehicle. Kratzer said the survey was taken from 8 p. m. to 11:20 p. m. He said he regarded the high percentages of motorists with new licenses as unexpected. Caprino received Distl's kick-off for Mansfield and returned 20 yards to the Marion 25-yard stripe. After no gain in scrimmage attempts Williams punted out on Marion's 41 yard marker.

A host of Tyger substitutes replaced the regulars and the team battled in midfield with neither squad registering any long gains. The half ended with Marion in possession of the ball on the Tyger 45 yard line.

Third Quarter

LABOR BREACH MAY BE HEALED

Garment Workers Leader Says C.I.O. Would Halt Drive If Steel Campaign Okayed.

COUNCIL MEETS THURSDAY

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5—For the first time in many weeks there appeared today some prospect that the schism in the American Federation of Labor might be healed before the breach becomes irremediable.

Tentative talk of a basis for peace was heard as plans were made for the quarterly meeting of the executive council of the A. F. of L. Thursday.

The conciliation talk did not originate here, however, but in New York. The New York Times quoted David Dubinsky, International Ladies' Garment Workers leader, as saying the Committee on Industrial Organization would give up its campaign on condition that the A. F. of L. permit vertical unionization of the steel industry.

Dubinsky made the statement on behalf of the union and other affiliates of the C. I. O., 10 of which were recently suspended from the American Federation of Labor for "rebellion."

The C. I. O. is seeking to organize steel and other mass production workers into large vertical (industrial) unions, each one taking in all workers in an industry regardless of the particular craft they work at.

The American Federation of Labor executive council is dominated by men who say many workers should belong to horizontal (craft) unions, each worker joining the union of his particular trade. However, these leaders invited the C. I. O. group, headed by John L. Lewis, was not suspended because of this difference of opinion but because the A. F. of L. could not countenance a rival or "dual" organization within its fold.

The executive council, meeting Thursday, faces the task of drawing up a report of the "rebellion" to be submitted to the annual A. F. of L. convention at Tampa, Fla., Nov. 16.

Cute Waitresses Enhance Flavor of Roast Beef

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 5—Restaurateurs of the nation, in convention here today, solemnly pondered a theory that dishes better appreciate the charm of good meat, when an attractive girl serves it.

The subject of neat, well-styled yet practical uniforms to enhance the charms of waitresses were selected for discussion by delegates to the 18th convention of the National Restaurant association. Ninety-six per cent of those who answered questionnaires on convention topics indicated an interest, Secretary Frank J. Wilfler, said, in what the well-dressed waitresses should wear.

One group, he disclosed, held that waitresses' uniforms should harmonize with the restaurant color scheme. Also, they maintained, modern restaurants change the uniforms with the season.

They contended, Wilfler explained, that a pretty girl clad in delicate green moving against daffodil yellow walls in the spring time, or a russet clad beauty serving Thanksgiving turkey in an oak panelled dining room, adds to the patron's optical pleasure and hence to the enjoyment of the repast.

HIGH COURT BEGINS NEW 8-MONTH TERM

No Major Decisions Likely To Be Given Before November Election.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5—With a quantity of new deal legislation already on the docket, the supreme court began today a new, eight-month term considered certain to write new chapters in the history of American government.

Their four-month vacation ended, the nine justices returned to their great marble building to file through three crimson-draped doors into the court chamber promptly at noon.

No momentous decisions were on today's schedule, however, and it appeared unlikely that there would be any final opinions on important new deal legislation until after the presidential election.

Action is likely to be announced next Monday on petitions for reconsideration of decisions last term holding unconstitutional the New York minimum wage law for women and the federal municipal bankruptcy act to aid cities, counties and other political subdivisions reduce their indebtedness in bankruptcy courts.

Recently-enacted legislation involved in pending disputes includes the Wagner labor relations act, the Frazier-Lemke farm mortgage moratorium law, the 1935 emergency relief measure furnishing money for publicly-owned hydroelectric projects, and the public utility holding company law.

Others are the act regulating the securities business, the 50 per cent tax on silver profits made before the silver purchase act became effective, the act authorizing an embargo on shipments of arms to Bolivia and Paraguay for their Chaco war, the Ashurst-Sumners measure to label prison-made goods and 1934 amendments to the railway labor act authorizing collective bargaining between employes and employers.

McCleary's automobile then struck a parked car belonging to Earl Kraner of 115 North Grand avenue, and continued south through the intersection before running over the curb and coming to a halt several hundred feet from the scene of the accident, police reported. U. S. Welcomes Il Duce's Action

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 5—Financial circles, welcoming the lira into the family of readjusted monies, said today devaluation of the Italian currency was another step in Europe's progress toward monetary stability and world trade recovery.

Italy's decision to devalue the lira came in the wake of a week of currency revision which started when France cut the gold content of her money.

Other countries which devalued their monetary units were Switzerland and Holland, both of which were on gold.

The Italian lira, however, rode up to the devaluation post under the reins of strict government management. Gold reserves up to the end of October, 1935, when the Bank of Italy discontinued its condition reports, totaled $350,000,000.

Government management involved rigid control of imports and exports of gold, goods and currency.

TESTS FOR DRIVERS PLANNED BY POLICE

Marion Department Will Cooperate with State.

Police departments in 31 Ohio cities, including Marion, will conduct examinations for drivers' licenses in their cities and the patrol will handle the examinations in the rest of the state, an Associated Press dispatch from Columbus reported today.

Col. Lynn Black, superintendent of the patrol, set Oct. 14 for a conference with the police chiefs to draft a uniform schedule of examinations, the report stated. Examinations will be conducted beginning Oct. 15 and will be required of applicants for licenses who have less than a years' driving experience, are under 18 years of age, or who have a physical disability which might prevent safe driving. It is estimated that approximately 250,000 persons are in this class. The license measure became effective Oct. 1, but enforcement of its provisions was extended until Nov. 1.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION HEARS ADDRESS ON PEACE

Glen Dalton of O. S.U. Evokes Spirited Discussion at Meeting Here This Morning.

A move to make Marion a part of a national movement to spread a sentiment for peace was taken this morning by the Marion County Ministerial association at the City library following a talk by Glen Dalton of the Ohio State university Y. M. C. A., and at the close of one of the liveliest meetings in the history of the association.

Mr. Dalton's brief talk on "Can America Stay Out of War," in which he explained the national emergency peace campaign which outstanding Christian ministers and laymen are sponsoring, evoked a spirited open discussion period in which several ministers and laymen took turns with the campaign program.

Fundamentally the campaign is to rid up the minds of the country to a mass protest against protecting American moneyed interests abroad at the expense of the lives of America's finest young men, one minister said after the meeting.

The idea is to spread throughout the country a sentiment for peace especially endeavoring to keep the United States out of war through pressure and eventually legislation, Mr. Dalton explained.

Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick noted divine, Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati and Dr. Charles Morrison of the University of Chicago are some of the nationally known men who are actively urging the campaign, and in Wooster and Middletown, O., the chairmen of the campaign committees are American Legion men, the speaker pointed out.

That the campaign is not a fanatical movement and is not pacifist propaganda was stressed by Mr. Dalton, who explained that those who become active campaigners are given a choice of declaring themselves either as against all wars or against the U. S. engaging in any war except a defensive war.

Several ministers of the city and county disagreed with Mr. Dalton and expressed their disapproval in strongly couched terms.

The association as a group votes to enter the campaign and to bring a prominent speaker to Marion sometime the last of October to present the campaign to leading civic organizations and school groups.

Rev. James O. Dodd of the Central Christian church was named chairman of the committee, with Rev. Stanley W. Wiant of Wesley M. E. church and Rev. E. A. Lehman of St. Paul's English Lutheran church as members.

Rev. Lehman was elected president of the association for 1936-37, to succeed Rev. Franklin G. Markley, former pastor of Epworth M. E. church, who is now in Toledo. Rev. Henry Maag of the Prospect Street M. E. church was elected vice president and Rev. H. C. Ahrens of the Salem Evangelical and Reformed church was named secretary-treasurer.

D. E. T. Waring of Epworth M. E. church and Rev. D. C. Shearer of the First Pilgrim Holiness church were welcomed as members. The next meeting will be held in two weeks.

President Roosevelt invited some prominent supporters, including Frank Murphy, Democratic candidate for governor of Michigan into conference at Hyde Park before departing tonight for Washington.

From there he is expected to leave Friday on a stumping tour which probably will take him as far west as Denver.

Robbed Lima Girl Uses Toy Gun To Get New Funds

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 5—Police held for further questioning today an 18-year-old Lima, O., girl who walked into central station weeping and told them she had held up a dress shop with a toy gun for money to replace funds stolen from her.

Police Sergt. William Kells said Miss Martha Wilson looked across his desk yesterday and said, "You better lock me up. I'm wanted."

"For what?" he asked.

"I'm the one who held up that dress shop." A loop shop had been robbed last Tuesday. "I came here from Lima on a bus," she continued. "To save what money I had, I slept on a bench. When I woke up my purse had been taken. I had been robbed of $12.

"But I still had a dime in my pocket. With that I bought a toy gun and went to a dress shop. All I got was $10. That's $2 less than was stolen from me. You might as well lock me up."

She surrendered the toy pistol.

LIFE BEGINS AT 66 AMID GOOD FRIENDS

Bay State Woman Moves from "Shack to Palace" Built by Her Neighbors.

By The Associated Press

WOBURN, Mass., Oct. 5—A happy 66-year-old woman, who until yesterday lived in a weather beaten shack, began life anew today in a new little cottage built and furnished by her neighbors.

The house completely furnished and protected by a paid up five year insurance policy was presented to Mrs. Lillian Manor who called it a "palace" by members of the Wilson Hills Farms Community club.

Nestling in a grove of birches the home contains a combination kitchen and dinette, and a bedroom was built by tradesmen of the community. Several of whom admittedly were hard-pressed in their efforts to complete projects on their own homes.

Furnishings were provided by holding whist parties and picnic sales, and some of the furniture were contributed by members of the community.

She can only know she will make both ends meet on a $15 a month government pension and has no desire in the longest run to be a burden of the town proper but envies good neighbors.

STEEL OPERATIONS UP POINT AND HALF

New Rate Highest Since May With Auto Output on Upswing Again.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Oct. 5 — Production increases in four districts with others uncharted caused steelworkers' operations to rise 1½ points last week to 74½ per cent in the magazine Steel's index.

The new operating rate was the highest since May, 1935. Pittsburgh district production increased one point to 75 per cent. Chicago one to 74, Cleveland 1½ to 41 and western Pennsylvania ½ to 48 the magazine reported today.

"Automobile production is rapidly upswing again and orders for finished material are being placed at new prices," said Steel.

Steel said the industry's aggregate demand was "well sustained" and said "September output of steel ingots placed 1936 production ahead of that for 1935 and unforeseen difficulties alone should lead will be maintained for the rest of the year." The nine months' ingot demand was 38 per cent above the comparable period of 1935.

POLICE SEEK SLAYER AT BRIDE-TO-BE RITES

By The Associated Press

COVINGTON, Ky., Oct. 5—Police mingled today with mourners gathered for the funeral of Frances Brady, hoping to gain more clues to what they termed one of the city's most baffling slaying mysteries.

Services for the attractive 25-year-old secretary, shot and killed last Friday as she returned home from a bridal shower and midnight mass, were held at 8:30 a. m. Monday time, this morning. Present were a number of persons who had planned to witness her marriage Wednesday to John L. O'Brien, railroad passenger agent.

Police Lieut. E. M. Beebe said it was "a good idea" to have plain clothesmen among the mourners on the theory that morbid curiosity might bring Miss Brady's slayer to appear at the rites.

Lieut. Beebe, who said he was on the scene within eight minutes after Miss Brady was shot by a shadowy figure from possibly a stair landing, said he knew nothing of a report that a man and woman were seen fleeing near the home where the victim lived with her two sisters, Elsaline and Margaret.

"That's the first I've heard of that," he said, "and I ought to know."

PALACE STAGE SHOW KEEPS THE PATRONS ON EDGE OF SEATS

It takes a good stage show to make a crowd laugh applaud or sit in respectful silence during the risky parts of an acrobatic act and in this measure Harry Clark's at the Palace theater Sunday and Rhapsody in Rhythm stage show today is a decided success

The capacity crowd in the theater when the show was reviewed last night liked the show and didn't hesitate to applaud the troupe of 16 entertainers who bring music clever dances bright costumes and smart repartee to the Palace stage

Among them the entertainers offer eight separate acts and no one of them is of the fill in variety Each has something worth while to offer

The Carter brothers one of them master of ceremonies and the other a gag man who puts his lines over with more than usual zest keep the crowd entertained between numbers and put on a couple of acts that demanded encores

The Danee sisters do one of those lively but dignified dance numbers in fluffy costumes that won a big hand The acrobatic numbers are especially good a brother and sister number being different from anything offered here before Milton Hemkin and his swing band furnish the musical background for the show and do a couple of specialty songs that click

Walking on ones hands is a difficult pastime but for one of the aces in the Palace's show walking on hands is elementary He goes up steps—big ones too—and climaxes his act by virtually diving to a pedestal and catching his full weight on one arm

The film part of the program offers Two in a Crowd featuring Joan Bennett and Joel McCrea Others in the cast include Henry Armetta Alison Skipworth Nat Pendleton Reginald Denny Billy Burrud Andy Clyde Elisha Cook Jr and Donald Meek

The story moves swiftly along a light entertaining plot and the satisfying climax comes neither too soon nor too easily for the principals who are broke when the story opens and whose fortune springs from a race horse and a $1 000 bill taken in a bank robbery

A news reel and previews complete the Palace program

BOTH SIDES SAY VICTORY THEIRS

Fascists and Loyalists Tell of Cutting Off Enemy in Fighting Near Toledo

By The Associated Press

Proud—and confusing—claims of strategic victory from both sides made a question mark today of the heart of the Spanish civil war the Madrid sector

The government contended That its "do or die" militiamen had raged down the main highway southwest of Madrid, taking the important junction of Maqueda, from which the highway leads to insurgent-dominated Toledo, and fought their way on west to a point near Santa Olalla.

This if true would have severed the main line of insurgent supplies from the Fascist base at Talavera La Reina, still farther to the west.

Claim Loyalists Cut Off

But the insurgents stated That their southern flanking column having taken Illescas and cut the southern supply line to Madrid at a point 22 miles south of the capital then had cut abruptly toward Naval Carnero on the Madrid Maqueda road

Should these Fascists seize Naval Carnero they would cut off the militiamen who if government claims were true just had succeeded in cutting off the Fascists themselves

However the insurgents did not concede the militia's recapture of Maqueda They announced their Moorish comrades who turned back a government assault on the supply roads leading to that junction and to Santa Olalla.

Shell Enemy Camp

From Toledo itself the Fascists viciously shelled a government encampment only 25 miles to the east Moorish fighters attacked the Socialists with rifle and machine gun fire

Other developments over the wide Spanish battlefield

1—Government troops claimed the capture of Motrico important town in the Bay of Biscay sector as part of a general counter offensive

2—Insurgents by wireless warned foreign shipping they might shell all southern and eastern ports from Malaga to Barcelona without notice

Married Comrades

BY ADELE GARRISON

Women "Jittery" as They Wait for Men To Leave Room Where Prisoner Is Held.

IF I had not been so terrified over our conjecture that my father's twin brother might be an impostor and as such putting our husbands in jeopardy during the "third degree" session going on in Dean's room, I should have laughed aloud at Lillian's suggestion of whiling away with a game of euchre the tedium—and terror—of waiting.

Neither of us likes cards and as she had commended neither of us had played the old-fashioned game for years. But I served its purpose of diverting our minds after a fashion, for we had this inevitably diverse recollections of the rules of the game and our squabbling over them kept us busy for a good quarter of an hour after Lillian had left her written code message to her husband in which she had warned him to keep watch of the man who had come to us as my father's twin brother.

But I knew that underneath her apparent absorption in the game she was as straight as I and when she sprang up suddenly and swept the cards into a tumbled heap I was grateful to her for her action which brought our fears out into the open.

Seek Information

What an idiot I have been she exclaimed. I'm the one who we came in and didn't open it again. We couldn't hear a sound if it were winging its way in the air. Come on. Let's see what's doing.

I was at her heels as she hurried into the hallway. But when we came to the foot of the stairs the guard was still standing at ease but palpably alert.

Lillian paused at his side with a low question.

Have you heard any thing?

I haven't been called upstairs the man returned a bit evasively. I thought Your man said he'd call me if he needed me but I have not heard a word from him.

Have you heard a door open or close? Lillian asked ignoring the question of the other sounds which the man undoubtedly had heard coming from that locked room.

Hear Harry's Voice

No ma'am he answered. I'm sure I haven't heard that. But—it opened just now he added hurriedly.

We too had heard that opening door and we stiffened involuntarily. Then we heard Harry Underwood's voice in a low pitched command evidently to Jim although we could not hear the words.

I was to expect for us next but Jim came bounding down the upper hall and spoke from the top of the guard below.

"Come up" he said. They want you."

I was wild to ask Jim if everything was all right but I knew the futility of such a question and steeled myself to emulate Lillian's calmness as she looked after the rapidly ascending guard with no word of exclamation or query.

The door had closed again but it opened a few seconds after Jim and the guard had disappeared from our sight. Then as I once more closed I had put her hand under my arm and hurried me into the library.

Everything's evidently safe so far she said. And we mustn't give them any idea that we've been any more than our message indicated. I imagine they will be along pretty soon for breakfast. Will you please ask her how long she'll have to wait before she can serve them?

I crossed to the corner cheerily and relayed Lillian's question.

Half an hour she said keeping every thing in I can start feeding life means a lot of us down.

I think the first of your five minutes has begun I said as the sound of a closing door and firm footsteps in the hall above came to my ears.

Mrs. Thurn Tells How To Prepare Spaghetti

Variation Let's eat spaghetti when made delicious and a real delicacy can be had for very little money Spaghetti made with a tomato sauce is a one-dish meal

To serve plates a wooden bowl a table cloth and an apron the time to create a formal, the table this Italian dish is suitable with the proper use a centerpiece of fruit The fruit dessert course should be in season and of the same style

Meat Sauce
Dill Pickles
Sweet Butter

Spaghetti may be served in the bowl or it may be served on the platter and covered with the sauce Under no circumstances should the spaghetti and sauce be mixed

The party of six purchase pounds of spaghetti Have a kettle of water in a pressure cooker to a boil Add one tablespoon of salt Dip the ends of the spaghetti into the boiling water and as it softens it will bend easily Then push it down under the water Cook 20 minutes or until soft Drain in a colander and rinse with one quart of hot water Serve at once to a hot platter just at serving It takes a large meat fork and large spoon to serve the spaghetti.

The meat sauce must be cooked slowly at least two hours This may be made well ahead of time and reheated

Parmesan cheese grated is the choice of the Italians One wonders though if given some mellow grated American cheese if they would not come over to the American side Try snappy grated American cheese with this supper The cheese is placed in a bowl and passed for the guests to help themselves

Italian Meat Sauce

Four strips of bacon two medium sized onions two stalks of celery one green pepper small can of mushrooms (optional) one pound ground beef one large can tomatoes one can concentrated soup salt and pepper to taste two tablespoons Worchestershire Sauce

Fry the bacon and remove the strips Brown the onions diced celery and chopped green pepper in the bacon fat and when yellow sprinkle in the ground beef sear well then add a can of tomatoes and Worchestershire sauce Simmer slowly for an hour Add the tomato soup and cook for another hour If this sauce is cooked slow in no other liquid is necessary and the sauce will be sufficiently thick

Cole Slaw

Select a small firm head of cabbage Core and shred quite fine Soak in cold water until crisp and dry in a cloth Just before serving mix with any dressing desired French boiled dressing or a mayonnaise Garnish with ripe olives

Unique Cookie Cutters

It is not always possible to purchase cookie cutters for the various festive occasions Distinctive ones may be cut by making the shape out of cardboard Roll the cookie dough directly on the baking sheet Place the design on the dough and trace around with a sharp knife Remove the surplus dough In this manner the most intricate designs can be formed without difficulty After the cookies are baked they are easy to remove

Keeping Cauliflower

Cauliflower should be washed in clear water then soaked with the head turned down into the water for at least an hour No salt or acid is added When cooking the vegetable add one tablespoon of lemon juice to the quart of water to keep the cauliflower white Cook only until tender and remove from heat. Cook uncovered

New Use for Dried Corn

Dried corn soaked in milk then cooked makes delicious corn fritters The fritters are better if the corn is soaked then ground with the coarse knife of the meat grinder

Delicious Carrots.

Carrots cooked with the peeling on then peeled and put through a ricer are delicious Season with melted butter Riced carrots make a beautiful border for a cauliflower

SIMPLE BUT ATTRACTIVE BREAKFAST NOOK

The corner of the kitchen beneath the window has been set aside for breakfasting Draperies of cotton adorn the windows The same material can be used for table mats

The Wrong Murderer

By HUGH CLEVELY

SYNOPSIS: Lee Ramsden had hired Ambrose Lawson and his gang of kidnapers to take away with Ruth Fraser who is Lee Ramsden's ward Terence Mahony released Ruth however and Ruth has tried to repay him by providing a false alibi for Terence in the matter of a murder Terence did not come to Ruth and Terence are having lunch with Lee Ramsden and in his guise of perturbed guardian Lee Ramsden is extracting valuable information for the use of himself and Lawson

* * *

CHAPTER NINETEEN

False at Heart

AFTER coffee had been served Lee Ramsden took Mahony up to the study for a cigar leaving Ruth in the drawing room There Lee Ramsden's manner changed became altogether serious

This is a nasty business Mahony a very nasty business he said I may seem rather casual about it but I hate my ward being mixed up in it You were a friend of young Ross weren't you"

Yes admitted Mahony

And Ross pretended to be a friend of Lawson Actually he hated him—hated and feared him I don't go about with my eyes shut and I've noticed the way Ross looked at Lawson when he thought nobody was watching him

It was absolute lies of course he had noticed nothing of the kind but he spoke very convincingly Mahony was conscious of a new respect for the old man

'A charming fellow Lawson continued Lee Ramsden So handsome and cultured And also if I'm any judge of men one of the most unprincipled blackguards in creation He seems to have been bobbing up a good deal in this matter last night and this morning doesn't he"

He paused

Won't you tell me the whole story" he asked I'll help you if I can My ward is a very good reason why I should help you I might easily be useful I'm not altogether without brains and even influence

Again it was superbly acted the old man appeared quite sincere Mahony was quite won over He told Lee Ramsden the whole story At the end of the story Lee Ramsden's face was very stern

'Those fellows must be crushed he said Utterly stamped out Hanging's a damned sight too good for them I'm with you Mahony to the last inch

He held out his hand Mahony took it. It was then that for the first time Mahony noticed the curious shape of Lee Ramsden's hands

* * *

After Mahony had gone Lee Ramsden laughed There was still an air of amusement about him when Mullins entered later in the afternoon with his tea.

'What did you think of young Mahony Mullins" he asked

'A very ordinary young man if I may say so sir replied Mullins

Lee Ramsden shook his head

On the contrary Mullins a very extraordinary young man said Lee-Ramsden He has both brains and guts I like him And that's a great pity because I'm afraid he's going to die young Do you know what he told me?

No sir said Mullins

He told me" said Lee Ramsden in a shocked tone that the foul gang who kidnaped Miss Ruth meant to make her a drug addict, so that when they released her she, and incidentally her money would still be entirely under their control Isn't that dreadful?"

"Er yes sir said Mullins He hardly seemed to know how to answer

Lee-Ramsden laughed.

'Don't be a hypocrite, Mullins, the only dreadful part of the scheme from out point of view is that it did not succeed," he said genially "What will be really dreadful will be if I lose control of Ruth's money when she's twenty one But I don't intend to Mullins I don't intend to

* * *

After leaving Lee Ramsden's house Mahony took the Underground to Notting Hill Gate Station and began to walk back to his lodgings About ten yards from the station entrance a man hurrying along the pavement bumped into him somewhat roughly

'Isn't your name Mahony?"

Sorry said the man

He paused for a moment looking at Mahony curiously

Isn't your name Mahony" he asked Terence Mahony?"

Yes" answered Mahony "What about it? He did not feel in the mood to chat to strangers

My name's Milson said the stranger Andrew Milson Don't you remember me?"

No answered Mahony To the best of his knowledge he had never see the man before in his life

I met you a couple of years ago in the Shanghai Bar" said Milson confidently "At that time I believe you were special correspondent in China for an American newspaper—the Chicago Leader

That information was correct. Two years previously Mahony had done newspaper work for an American paper He had also quite frequently been in the Shanghai Bar

"I saw another chap from China the other day too," went on Milson Kosoff—you knew him didn't you" He's over here now on a visit Very well dressed and prosperous He introduced me to his partner a man named Mulgrave

Mulgrave was the man whom Mahony had held up at the pistol point to find out where Ruth was imprisoned And Koroff had made his living in China by exporting dope Mahony began to be interested in Milsons conversation

When did you see Kosoff?" asked Mahony

"About four days ago He looked so prosperous that I tried to touch him for a fiver I didn't expect to get it of course I was never so surprised in my life as when Kosoff actually gave it to me He also told me that if I was down on my luck and not too particular he knew a place where I could get a job

Milson laughed

Well I am down on my luck and I've never been very particular—as a matter of fact I had to leave China rather suddenly—but there are some jobs that I do draw the line at and Kosoff's are among them He had a chat with Mulgrave about me and Mulgrave gave me a note of introduction

The job was dope peddling I suppose suggested Mahony

Milson nodded

Kosoff was quite frank about it He knows I'm a public school man that I've got a pretty tough record in China and that the English police don't know me and those are the qualifications he wanted I took the note and thanked him because of the money but there's nothing doing

Mahony buys the note from Milson, tomorrow

To Remove Sand

If spinach is washed first in luke warm water much of the sand will be washed from the leaves The second washing of warm water will get the remainder of the sand Wash both times in plenty of water The third washing should be in cold water to restore the crispness of the leaves

Convenient Dishpan

A small shelf built beneath the drain board will make a convenient place for the dishpan If two shelves are built in the space one may hold the cleaning materials and keep the top of the sink and drainboard clear for working purposes

The Marry-Go-Round

BY HELEN ROWLAND

Behold my Daughter the Land is filled with dissension and confusion and the air is rent with shouting and tumult and political slogans

For lo this is the season of elections when men and women forgather in the highways and byways each seeking to register his views with a voice pitched louder than all the rest Yet when did a lo d voice and a clattering tongue ever win an argument or prove a point

Then I adjure thee forget not that at such a time woman's place is in the background And she that closeth her lips discreetly and assumeth a poker face and a non committal smile shall come forth unscathed and live to vote again

• • •

But she that waxeth violent and frotheth at the mouth only wasteth her breath For nothing on earth that a woman can say ever changed another woman's mind or her political opinions

Then I charge thee wheresoever six or seven women are gathered together let the wrangleth rant and the debaters beat the air but observe thou the discretion of the Sphinx For whether the conversation begineth with bridge or golf or babies or the new fall hats it will deviate to politics as surely and automatically as a debutante's thoughts turn to her lipstick at the approach of a man

Verily thou mayest criticize the color of a woman's hair and suggest that she alter her complexion or change her milliner—but never disparage her politics For these she holdeth sacred and will defend with all her might and with all her eloquence and with all her fury

• • •

Lo whensoever a bitter discussion ariseth between two women concerning the merits of their pet candidates it endeth always in battle and personalities and recriminations and hair pulling Yea, it becometh a lifetime breach

But men take their politics as they take their games While the contest rageth they fight without gloves and give no quarter Yea in their arguments they wax hot under the collar and their words oftimes lead to blows and profanity and vituperation And of the calling of names there is no end

HALF BILLION IN FOREIGN MONEY FLOWS TO U. S.

Political and Financial Uncertainty Causes Flight of Funds from European Countries

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON Oct. 5—The commerce department reported yesterday a half billion dollars of foreign capital flowed into the United States during the first half of this year but estimated that this was a decrease under 1935's six month period

"Political and financial uncertainties" abroad were described as responsible for the flight of funds from European shores.

A smaller movement of short term funds caused the decrease said government economists who added that on the other hand long term transactions—such as investments in American enterprises—increased

The inflow of foreign capital was estimated at $496 000 000 or about $124 000 000 less than during the first six months last year

Reviving international trade a world wide improvement in domestic business and a sharp pickup in tourist spending also were reported in the department's survey of international payments

Imports of gold totaled $537 000 000 or about two thirds of the inflow during the same months last year

American exports rose $130 000 000 above the comparable period for 1935 commerce department experts estimated Their figures showed that purchases from other nations shot up more rapidly leaving a $9 000 000 excess of imports over exports.

Total merchandise exports were placed at $1 154 000 000 and imports at $1 163,000 000.

Americans spent about 10 per cent more on foreign travel than they did during the first half of 1935

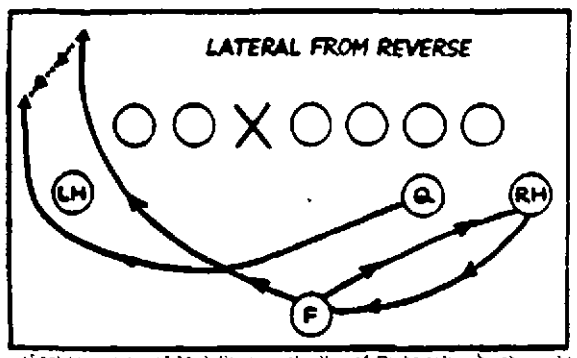
WINGBACKS by TINY THORNHILL

A PRIMER OF THE WARNER SYSTEM



(Last in a series of 12 daily articles prepared by the coaching staff of Stanford's Rose Bowl champions in collaboration with Russ Newland Associated Press sports writer)

A FAIRLY consistent ground gaining play used by Stanford football teams is the lateral pass from a reverse

On this play the backfield is lined up in double wing formation with unbalanced line strong on the right side The ball goes to the fullback who starts for his right end He hands the ball to the right half who reverses the field skirting left end Meanwhile the quarterback who also has reversed the field, first inside and then outside the line of flight taken by the right half gets in position to take the lateral

If the left half has taken care of his blocking assignment, the play occasionally nets an appreciable gain.

Most Stanford passes start like running plays. This applies to forward as well as to lateral passes Our passes usually are short. We have plenty of long passes but they are not often used

Our passers are coached to make their throws from about six yards behind the line Most passers on other teams go farther back The 6-yard distance fits in with our type of plays.

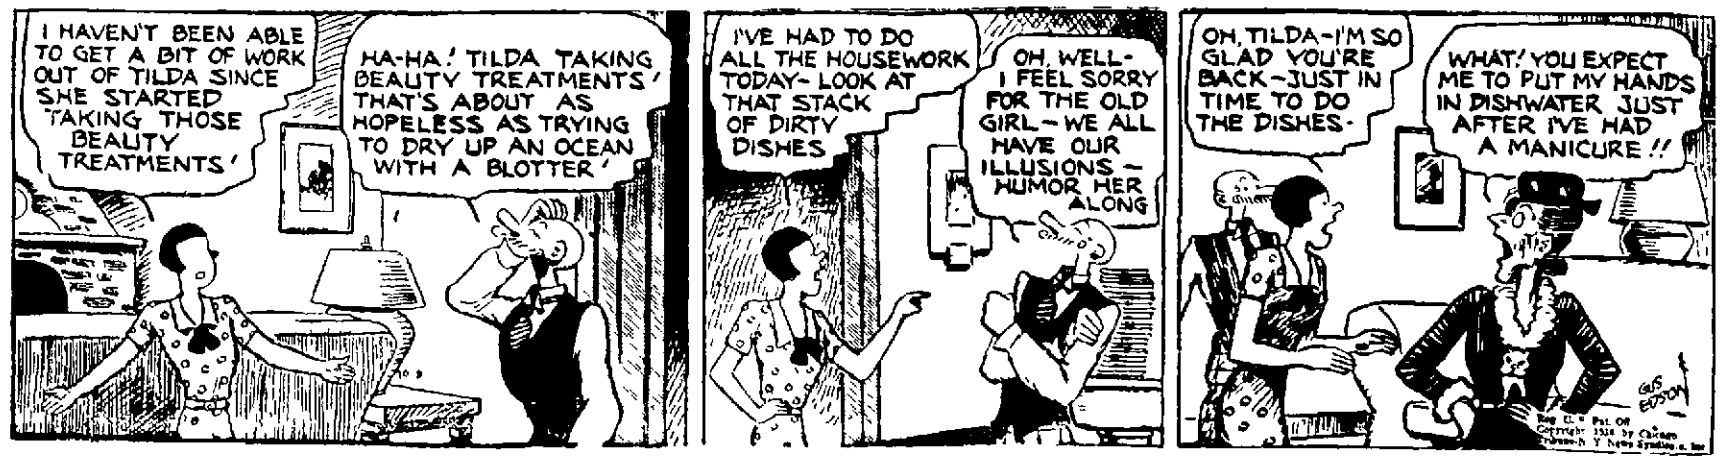
The Gumps — By Gus Edson



I HAVEN'T BEEN ABLE TO GET A BIT OF WORK OUT OF TILDA SINCE SHE STARTED TAKING THOSE BEAUTY TREATMENTS'
HA-HA! TILDA TAKING BEAUTY TREATMENTS! THAT'S ABOUT AS HOPELESS AS TRYING TO DRY UP AN OCEAN WITH A BLOTTER'
I'VE HAD TO DO ALL THE HOUSEWORK TODAY- LOOK AT THAT STACK OF DIRTY DISHES
OH, WELL- I FEEL SORRY FOR THE OLD GIRL- WE ALL HAVE OUR ILLUSIONS - HUMOR HER ALONG
OH, TILDA- I'M SO GLAD YOU'RE BACK- JUST IN TIME TO DO THE DISHES-
WHAT! YOU EXPECT ME TO PUT MY HANDS IN DISHWATER JUST AFTER I'VE HAD A MANICURE!!
